MAKES A NOTABLE RECORD

BUNCH OF KEYS AND CECIL ONLY NON-WINNERS FOIALED AT IDLE HOUR FARM.

E. R. Bradley Achieving Success as a Breeder in Blue Grass Region of Kentucky—Chicagoan Now Has One Hundred Head of Thoroughbreds.

Lexington, Ky., December 7.—E. R. Bradley, who has been at Idle Hour Farm since the close of the Latonia fall meeting, directing a number of improvements that have been and are being made, and planning with Manager Cliff Hammon for the coming breeding season, will be leaving with Mrs. Bradley in a few days for Palm Beach, Florida, where they intend to spend the winter.

A new stallion stable of four spacious and comfortable boxes and a feed room of the same size, all floored with cork brick underlaid with concrete and chinders, having been erected, the old barn that stood at the left on the approach to the stable has been dismantled and its taking away has added much to the general appearance of the premises in the immediate vicinity of the house.

Two new paddocks are being fenced off just north of the stallion barn and on the hill to the west of it is being erected another barn of a dozen stalls for the accommodation of weanlings and yearling thoroughbreds. In the next few weeks the work of re-soling the farm track will be undertaken with a view to making it as good as any private training ground in this vicinity. For this reason and for the further reason that Mr. Bradley has a desire to make certain comparisons in the training of his horses that would not be possible were they to remain at home, Manager Hammon will take the string of about twenty-five horses to Louisville about January 25 to give them their spring preparation over the Churchill Downs track.

Lately a pretty and comfortable dining hall for the men and boys, of whom there are about twenty-five employed on the place, has been erected and three new cottages have been added to the sleeping quarters of these men. This week Bishop C. P. Maes of the Covington Diocese of the Roman Catholic Church, of which Mr. Bradley and the majority of the men on his place are members, visited Idle Hour Farm and attended the erection of a chapel in which mass may be said each Sunday by a priest of St. Paul's parish in this city.

"I consider it the duty of every employer to give his employees an opportunity to go to church if they want to," said Mr. Bradley, "and when I found it impossible to count so many of them to church in the city six miles distant each Sunday morning I set about a way to bring the church to them." Carpenters will begin work on the chapel next week.

The Idle Hour Farm is approximately three-quarters of a mile square, and in addition to the main farm, Mr. Bradley has some excellent pasturage leased from his neighbor, C. C. Patrick, on Highland Farm, just across the road. Including the stallions—Sain, Cunard, Jack Atkin, Helmet and Astronomer—there are approximately one hundred thoroughbred horses on the farm, many being broodmares, weanlings, yearlings and older horses in training or retired, as are two renowned geldings—Friar John, the first race horse Mr. Bradley ever owned, and Bad News, the consistent old performer who "came home with the coin" on numerous occasions. The majority of the mares, there being something over thirty, are running with beef cattle on Highland Farm, while the weanlings, twenty-nine of them, and for the greater part by Cunard, are running with cattle in the big woodlands between the highway and the house. The yearlings and older horses in training have their turns in the paddocks each day and are kept in their boxes only at night or when the weather is untoward. None of the horses are being galloped now. They will not be put to it again until they get to Louisville. The weanlings are started at night and are fed grain three times a day, the midday feeding being in troughs in the woodlands pasture.

There are some very good looking individuals among the weanlings, notably the filly by Cunard, Black Mary; the brother to Bell Horse; the half sister to Phil Finch; the one out of Melton Mowbray; Dishabille's foal; the first of Minnie Adams' produce; and a colt and a filly by Helmet, the first and only one of his get. These will compare favorably with the pick of the baby racers on any breeding farm in this vicinity.

"This pasture contains our money and our hopes," said Mr. Bradley, as he entered the woodlands with the writer. "The cattle represent our money—we can cash them at any time for money that what they have cost up to that time, whenever it may be—and the weanlings represent our hopes."

In figuring the farm's sure money getters Mr. Bradley overlooked about one thousand White Orington and Leghorn hens and their accompanying roosters, and the writer pointed to the poultry department, asking, "What about those?" He admitted that they were not a bad and that they returned a big revenue. The eggs from these chickens are shipped every day, winter and summer, with the exception of what are used on the farm, to Mr. Bradley's Del Prado Hotel, in Chicago.

"For a young breeder—I've been at it now only six years—I feel that I have been fairly successful," said Mr. Bradley, "and all the horses that have been foaled on this farm and put in training by myself or others since I have had it, Bunch of Keys and Cecil are the only two that have not won."

The Idle Hour Farm thoroughbreds are all healthy and there is only one on the premises that has lately taken a lame step. This is the $14,000 broodmare colt by Rock Sand—Fairy Slipper (dam of Pan-touffe), by St. Serf. "This colt has rheumatism," said Mr. Bradley, as the magnificent big yearling, with a coat that looks and feels like seal skin, stepped stiffly out of his box; "but for all that $20,000 would not tempt me to part with him this minute. There is no thoroughbred today that will make a better stock horse than he. His rheumatism is in the forelegs, some days in the right and other days in the left, but after he has been at exercise for a few minutes it disappears and he gallops without showing any trace of it at all."

The $11,000 chestnut colt by Celt—Handmaid (dam of Bribery), by Followcraft, has grown taller and has hardened considerably since he was sold here in September. He is, for racing purposes, probably the pick of the string. With Ganz up he worked a quarter over the farm track faster than 24.

The colt by Viceroy—Cap and Bells, for which Mr. Bradley gave $5,800, is a good prospect. The Peter Pan—Belgravia colt has improved greatly. Mr. Bradley has half a dozen of his own breeding that look as if they will be able to hold their own in almost any company and the two most fancied of these are the brother to Bobby Boyer and the colt by Maria Santa—Whisk Broom.

The stallions look good and they will be in excellent condition for the season that will open about a month hence. Sain and Jack Atkin, while belonging to Barney Schreiber, are under lease to Mr. Bradley for two years, this being the second year. Astronomer belongs to David Gideon, Cunard and Helmet are the property of the master of the farm. Helmet will not go to Tennessee to be mated with W. O. Farmer's mares. He, through his two weanlings, has shown himself to be a fine breeder and Mr. Bradley wants to give him further opportunity.

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

MANAGEMENT OF JOCKEY CLUB JUAREZ MAKING MANY NOTABLE IMPROVEMENTS.

Clubhouse to Be Erected for Use Next Season—Attendance and Volume of Speculation This Fall Greatly in Excess of Previous Meetings.

El Paso, Tex., December 7.—That it is the intention of General Manager Winn to make the plant of the Jockey Club Juarez one of the most beautiful and up-to-date race courses in the west is demonstrated by the many improvements made since last season. These improvements include a wall one thousand feet long and twelve feet high, extending from the upper end of the grandstand to the stables, which entirely embraces the track itself. The changing of the mile and a sixteenth chute from its former location to a point nearer the stand, has met with general approval, it now being possible to obtain a good view of the start, which was not possible heretofore.

The painting of the grandstand in green and white, the colors adopted by the management, does much to lighten that structure and relieve its former somber appearance. A new entrance to the paddock from the lawn instead of the betting ring is a notable improvement, as it enables ladies to see the saddling without compelling them to go through the ring as formerly.

A lawn about two hundred feet long and one hundred feet wide, sown with Bermuda grass, at the upper end of the stand, beautifies that portion of the grounds greatly and by next season will be extended to the starting point of the mile and a sixteenth chute, adjacent to which a handsome clubhouse is to be erected for next season's opening.

The betting ring has not been neglected. The installation of immense stoves at each end of it will go far to add to the comfort of the public, should weather conditions demand their use. The drilling of many wells will make it possible to obtain an abundant supply of water with which the infield can be irrigated, and it is expected that next fall the entire infield will be covered with grass.

Speculation in the betting ring this year is of much larger volume than in former seasons and is increasing daily. The attendance also shows a marked improvement over past meetings and it is expected that after the holidays many patrons of the sport from eastern and western points will join the large number already here.

Cold, bleak weather did not deter the racing enthusiasts from going over the border this afternoon in large numbers. A big Saturday crowd was in attendance and the eleven layers of odds who operated reported business exceedingly heavy. Two long shots scored, Swiftsure winning the second race at 30 to 1 and Annual Interest taking the third at 25 to 1.

There was a spill on the far turn in the first race. Coppers first stumbled and fell. Then John Patterson was thrown when Coppers staggered into him. Guy Spenser, coming from the rear, fell over the straddle John Patterson while he was attempting to get up. Jockeys Gross, Burlingame and Forsythe were the riders involved. They received nothing more than a severe shaking up and a few minor bruises. The rest of their engagements were abandoned and it may be a few days before they are again seen in the saddle.

Dunecragan, the winner of the sixth race, was the best backed horse of the meeting, and the ring lost heavily over his victory.

The management announced today that beginning with Monday, December 16, there will be racing at Juarez on Mondays until the one hundred days of the meeting is completed.

Senor Don Alberto Terrazas, former president of the Jockey Club Juarez, has arrived from his Chicago home to attend the racing. He will be accompanied by Johnny Lewis, one of the best known layers in the west, was a recent arrival and he took a stand in the ring today.

George Reardon, son-in-law of J. W. Schorr, the leading money-winning owner of 1912 in America, is here for the season.

Abe Kemper arrived yesterday with the intention of joining the layers' ranks.

Henry Griffin, a one-time prominent jockey, now an extensive operator, has been named as a delegate and will soon join the ranks of the layers.

John Cimner, prominent in western turf circles, is here for the season.

Bookmaker Al Koenigsberg, who is paying his first visit to Juarez, will join the layers' ranks.

Owner Harry Fink, with his horses Palatable and Province arrived this morning. On the same train came the horses of Jones and Kraft. Their string comprises Henry Hutchison, Wolferton and Huda's Star.

Herbert and Harry Hughes were additions to the ring at today's cut-in. They came from their home in Chicago. Both were greatly impressed with the magnitude of the Juarez plant.

The stall accommodations of the Juarez track have been exhausted by the late arrivals from Jamestown and the A. B. Spreckels consignment from California. So any additional newcomers will have to seek quarters for their horses outside the track. There are several good stables in the vicinity of the track, so late comers can get fairly good accommodations. There are now more horses at the Jockey Club Juarez track than were quartered on any other course in America this year.

The track at Juarez is now constantly becoming faster and within the next ten days it will be in its usual record-breaking condition. On account of the new top soil and heavy rains that occurred before the meeting began, the course was in such a condition that it did not dry out fast enough to allow Superintendent Keegan to give it the usual working. This delayed many of the best horses in their preparation and explains the present lack of quality in many of the races run so far. Now that the course is nearing normal condition, all the horses are being worked to their limit and in less than a fortnight the daily programs here will be much better.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey Musgrave will ride at Charleston.
L. Burlingame has purchased Tallow Dip at Juarez.
Recent arrivals at Juarez include C. J. Casey and Mark Demerest, formerly well known as a harness horse driver.

Clarence Buxton, who formerly trained for the Fleur de Lis Stable, is now handling the horses of Frank W. Doss at Juarez.

Jockey T. Koerner has had several tempting offers to ride abroad next season, but as yet has not accepted any of them. He is contemplating a trip abroad about February 1 and will in all probability ride next season in Europe.

L. Weisberg, of San Juan, Porto Rico, spent yesterday at Lexington and purchased two thoroughbred yearlings from William Scully. He took options on fourteen more racers of various ages. Mr. Weisberg says the government of Porto Rico is building a track and will exercise supervision over the racing.

Frank O'Neill, first jockey for W. K. Vanderbilt, in France, did not stay long in New York when he returned Wednesday. He has gone on to St. Louis to visit with the family of A. C. McCafferty, his wife's folk. There are two little O'Neills, who came over with Frank and his wife, one the elder and the other was born on the other side. O'Neill's present intention is to return to New York after the holidays, and he will sail for France early in January.

AMATEUR MEETINGS SCHEDULE EXPANDING.

New York, December 7.—Those who followed the amateur meetings during the season that has closed know that it was a good one; but a better evidence of its success is the fact that new ones are contemplated and old ones will be expanded for 1913. The United Hunt of Virginia met with such success at Middleburg in the fall that a spring meeting is being arranged. It was at this meeting that nineteen started in the cross-country test that was won by J. B. Thomas' Lizzie Oris, ridden by Basil Hall. All of the nineteen finished and in the lot were Colonel Henry T. Allen and his two daughters. At Brookline it has been decided to have four days instead of a three-day meeting in the spring, and Mrs. Lathrop Brown, whose father, the late Robert Hooper, was one of the pillars of the Brookline meeting, has announced that a one-day meeting will be given at Roadville, Mass., where Mrs. Brown has an extensive estate. Harry Payne Whitney has also intimated that he will entertain with racing at his famous Brookdale place next year.

BENJAMIN M. COLE DIES.

Lexington, Ky., December 7.—Benjamin M. Cole, aged 66, former turfman and breeder, once manager of the Nursery Stud and owner of the famous Lithia will near this city, died this morning after a protracted illness. Services will be held at Christ Church Cathedral, Monday afternoon. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Annie Cole, and a daughter, Miss Grace Cole, of this city, and a sister, Mrs. E. C. Daley of New York, and a stepson, George Wood of Cincinnati.

KENTUCKY ASSOCIATION RE-ELECTS OFFICERS.

Lexington, Ky., December 7.—The stockholders of the Kentucky Association, at their annual meeting today, re-elected the board of directors and the directors met and re-elected all the former officers, Catesby Woodford being president; Garrett D. Wilson, secretary; Younger Alexander, treasurer, and James P. Ross, superintendent of track and grounds. O. H. Chennault, R. L. Baker and Hal Price are Headley, in addition to the president and secretary, will constitute the executive committee.

KINGSTON AND HIS REMARKABLE CAREER.

One of the truly greatest horses of modern times passed away when Kingston died last Friday at Castleton Farm, near Lexington, Ky. A modest old-time trainer, "Eph" Suedeker, introduced him to the New York racing public in 1886, as the Spendthrift—Kapanga—and he ran his first three races under that appellation before being given the name he afterwards made so famous. It was a year of remarkable two-year-olds. Dwyer Bros. that year that that remained unbeaten through the year. They were Tremont, which won all of his thirteen races and was a veritable wonder, and Hanover, which started in three races and won them all. Tremont bowed a tendon the following spring and never raced after his two-year-old days, but in 1887 Hanover won fourteen races in succession before experiencing his first defeat. Then J. B. Hagen had a grand bay colt named King Fox, a brother to the famous Ban Fox and possibly the best of the year's galaxy of stars. He was only beaten once and then by Kingston in the Select Stakes at Mount Pleasant Park. Afterwards he had his revenge when he ran away from Kingston in the seven furlongs Flatbush Stakes at Sheepshead Bay in an amazing display of irresistible speed. Unfortunately he died the following winter and American racing was deprived of a young horse of tremendous possibility. Such other colts as Bradford, Laredo, Montrose, Belvidere and Oriflamme and such great fillies as Firenze, Connemara, Bessie Jane Wary and Grisette were among the other crack two-year-olds of that prolific year. But among them all Kingston showed so well that Dwyer Bros. gave the reported price of $12,000 for him, a great price for a horse in those days, thereby strengthening their own stable and removing an evident danger to the successful course of their other crack two-year-olds.

Always a perfectly sound horse and retaining his speed remarkably, Kingston was raced until he was ten years old, a rare record for a horse of his high class, and one perhaps without a parallel. Dwyer Bros. were racing men pure and simple. They bought horses that other men bred and kept them in racing as long as they could win. Thus it was that Kingston was eleven years old before he was given an opportunity to reproduce his kind in the stud. In the course of his long and honorable racing career he won, among other races, the Culver Handicap, three times in succession, Dolphin Stakes, First Special three times in succession, Flight Stakes, Second Special, September Stakes, Select Stakes, Camden Stakes, Potomac Stakes, Anacostia Stakes, Oriole Handicap, Euterco Stakes, Palisades Stakes, Beverwyck Stakes, Excelsior Stakes, California Stakes, Average Stakes and many other events of value. Many of these stake races are forgotten names today, but were then raced for over the tracks at Sheepshead Bay, Gravesend, Saratoga, Monmouth Park, Rahmton and Washington. In 1889 he electrified the racing world when he defeated Ranceland, Tenny and Los Angeles in the First Special at Gravesend, and ran its mile and a quarter in the then unprecedented time of 2:06 1/2. People are used to much faster times now in the mile and a quarter, but it was not so then and Kingston's feat was deemed a marvel.

With one exception all of Kingston's racing was done over the eastern tracks. The exception was in 1891 when Dwyer Bros. were induced to send their famous brown flyer here for an introduction to Chicago patrons of racing. At that time opposition racing was carried on daily at Garfield Park and Hawthorne and it was at Garfield Park that Kingston's racing career was to be decided. His first start there was on Saturday, August 22, in the Garfield Stakes, of $10,000, for all ages, at a mile and an eighth. The starters were Kingston 124 pounds, Aloha 124, Verge d'Or 122, and Marion C. 119. The spectators taxed the capacity of the track. Kingston, ridden by Tony Hamilton, was a 2 to 5 favorite and it was 2 1/2 to 1 against Verge d'Or, 7 to 1 against Marion C., and 20 to 1 against Aloha. "Dare Devil" Fitzpatrick was on Marion C., Cash Loan on Aloha, and Overton rode Verge d'Or. Nearly everybody expected Kingston to win and was ready to applaud his success, but when Marion C. unexpectedly came home first by a length there was a wild outburst of frantic cheering. Marion C. was a capital race mare, but there was no doubt that Kingston's triumph was due to the fact that Kingston had been unfavorably affected by his journey on the cars from New York. The race was run in 1:55. A new race at the same distance was arranged for at once and another great exciting witness to his decision was added and the three starters were Kingston 122 pounds, Marion C. 119, and Verge d'Or 122. This time Kingston was a 1 to 3 favorite and an easy winner by the lengths in 1:54, with Marion C. second. The riders were as before with the exception that Griffin instead of Overton was on Verge d'Or. In the interval between the two races some talk led to the making of a match race between Kingston at 120 pounds and Chris Smith's speedy three-year-old VanBuren, familiarly known as "The Jackrabbit." The race was run August 31 and was for $1,500 a side, at a mile and a sixteenth. Ted Sloan rode VanBuren and Kingston won with ridiculous ease by two lengths in 1:50 1/4, the track being slow that day.

Kingston's visit is one of those episodes of Chicago racing that old-timers frequently discuss to this day and was vastly pleasing to local race-goers at the time.

One feature in Kingston's racing not generally remembered is the fact that he was three times mixed up in dead heats. These were with Yum Yum in 1886, Cracksman in 1889, and Santa Anna in 1893. In each case the money was divided.

At a sire was as great as he had been as a racer and twice was the premier in 1890 with Ballyhoo Bey, Ildrim and The Lady were his star representatives, and in 1910 when the son of his old age, Novelty, swept all before him and repeated Ballyhoo Bey's triumph in the Futurity. His racing record in detail of years was as follows:

SHOOTING SPRAY quit badly in the last eighth. STEPHENIST and EYE WHITE were close up in the early running, but tired and probably were short. ZOOLO ran well.

ANNUAL INTEREST was kept close up to the leaders from the start and, challenging BOBBY COOK in the final eighth, headed him when a hand or two from home and won under mild restraint. BOBBY COOK set a good pace and made a game, but tiring, finish. CLINT TUCKER with a forward contender all the way, but was held safe by the two leaders. GOLDEN AGNES seemed unable to get near the leaders and was never dangerous. ACUMEN ran fairly well throughout. The others were always out-paced.

good mare Meadow. The Withers gelding has been named Pavey, while the others are: George, ch. g., out of Belle Rankin; Trues, br. f., out of Pavey; Chris, b. g., out of Lunar; Kick, blk. g., out of Indulgence.

Dolly Hayman, the dam of Meadow, has no yearlings this season. She was barren in 1911, but she now has a handsome bay suckling colt, a brother to Meadow. This youngster is the first colt Dolly Hayman has dropped. Heretofore her produce have been fillies.

paid 141 per cent. on capital invested. It required a bank of $56 and won $78.80. There were 9 System horses to play and 8 of them finished first. As there were no System plays on two days, this was not so bad for 14 days' racing. It certainly should do better at Ingersoll than a hundred days.

PROOFS OF ABOVE STATEMENT FILED WITH THIS PAPER. This System is easy to operate, as there is no handlicapping or figuring to do. Can be played at the tracks, in poolrooms or with the handbooks. $5.00 GETS IT.
